Fund's Objectives & Strategy

Alinma Nomu Market Equity Fund is a public open-ended fund. The objective of the Fund is to grow the invested capital over its term by investing primarily, and through active management, in the shares of companies listed on the Saudi Parallel Market (Nomu), as well as in initial public offerings (IPOs), rights issues, and remaining offerings on the Nomu market. It may also invest in shares of companies that have transitioned from the Parallel Market to the Main Market for a period of five years from the date of their transition, provided such investments are approved by the Fund Manager's Shariah Committee. Additionally, in order to manage liquidity effectively, the Fund Manager may hold investments in cash, or invest in Murabaha transactions, as well as money market transactions and funds.
